ALCOHOL IN MEDICINES Alcohol is the best known preservative of medical compounds, and the average proprietary medicine contains from 1% to 22%, which is the smallest possible amount to preserve the ingredients, while the average doctor's prescription contains 25% to 50%.

Such standard preparations as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contain but 18%, and they even put the Compound up in tablet form, which the over - scrupulous woman, who objects to alcohol in any degree, may use.

Lots of egg plant, very fine, $1 bu. bas. 25, retailed 20 cts. ea. In suburbs, but 8 cts. each by peddlers, store prices 12 cts. Many carrots, new lots from Jersey, $1 bu. bas.; per doz. bu., ½ ct. bun. Yet retailers call 3 for 5 cts. cheap.

Cucumbers (pickling), $1-75 cts. bu. Don't pay 10 cts. doz. retail. Celery, 65 ets. doz. bun., but 12 cts. in stores.

Currants plentiful, new packing, 4½ qt. bas., 25 cts.; black grade, 75 cts. Few grapes (Del.); huckleberries cheap at 7 cts. to 12 cts. qt. per 32-qt. crats. Why do retail prices for "Hucke" stay at 14 cts. quart?

Beans—Why ship to city markets beans grown to tough pod size, beans large size within? They should be picked 3 days e. fler than such stage, tender eating. Hungry pigs refuse bea. pods. Should New Yorkers eat them, even at 25 cts. bu.? (Retailed 5 cts. qt., too.)

Buy cream cheese not by 12 cts.-10 cts. single one, but a bex, 5 lbs. weight, 6 cheeses, 65 cts.; or per doz. rate, 95 cts.

BROKER WHITTEMORE TELLS JUDGE WHY HE LOCKED UP HIS CHILD

"Can't Provide Champagne Accomodation on Beer, Income," He Says.

"I've had financial reverses and I cannot keep my child in a twentyroom apartment; I cannot provide champagne accommodations on a beer ncome," said Reginald G. Whittemore, a broker of No. 56 Wall street, when he appeared before Judge Beall in Yonkers City Court to-day on the charge that he had endangered the life of his nine-year-old daughter,

Whittemore's child was taken from a second floor room of his home at No. 23 Graystone Place, Harmony Park, last week, by Supt. Charles H. for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, after complaints had been received from neighbors. The door to the room was securely tied, and the of going away daily after leaving some sandwiches and a bottle of iced Bhe complained of her loneliness. Judge Beall put over the formal bearing until next Friday, but talked with Whittemore, the child and two witnesses in his chamber. Wilbur Reaser, an artist of Harmony Park, said he had heard little Dorothy crying while she was alone during a since the death of Dorothy's mother he had been acting as father, mother and nurse to her and thought be was doing right. He said he planned to send the child to a private school in Switzerland in the fall. To-day Dorothy was placed in the custody of Mrs. Charles Wilson, a colored maid, in an apartment at No. 159 Wood-worth avenue, Yonkers, which Whittemore owns.

Missing Child Found Drowned. thunder storm, but he knew of no crucity. Mrs. D. R. Mason, another neighbor, said she only knew that the child had been confined.

Whittemore made a lengthy speech to the Judge, describing his financial difficulties. He said for seven years of the Harlem morgue.
